Life support certifications due!
Renew your BLS/ACLS/PALS/NRP cards. It’s a condition of employment.

Does your BLS/ACLS/PALS/NRP certification card expire in October?

- If so, take steps to renew now, to avoid being removed from the schedule without pay beginning November 1.

Online and in-person sessions
Due to COVID-19, the didactic portion of the class is now online. An in-person skills check still is required.

Please be sure to complete both required portions. For more information on how to enroll, visit the link below.

Our members need you and count on you. Please take action today.
If you need recertifications, please go here: https://nursescholars.kaiserpermanente.org/life-support-classes-bls-acls-pals-and-pears-certifications/

We are here to support you!
If you have any trouble securing a class, please immediately escalate your issue to your manager and Clinical Education. There are many options for classes, and we will do all we can to help ensure you are able to recertify.

Condition of employment
Remember that these certifications are a condition of employment, depending on position requirements. Without recertification, you will be removed from the schedule without pay, and may face further action. For more information, contact Human Resources.
