

April RIA Grand Rounds

Building a More Inclusive Future and Human Flourishing

Apr. 29, 2024

4–5 p.m. PST

Speaker:

Katie Boston-Leary, PhD, MHA, MBA, RN, NEA-BC
Director, Nursing Programs American Nurses Association (ANA)

Dr. Katie Boston-Leary oversees the Nursing Practice and Work Environment Division, and Healthy Nurse Healthy Nation for the ANA. A guiding light in nursing leadership, she will share DEI concepts and the current landscape of healthcare delivery. Her discussion will empower you to be an effective workplace ally, advocate for justice, and foster an environment where Equity, Inclusion, and Diversity are not just ideals, but lived experiences.

Program Description:

Inclusivity is an outcome and the necessary and intentional process for humans in nursing and healthcare. Anti-racist and supportive behaviors of the healthcare team are critical to building a healthy ecosystem for all to thrive and flourish. This presentation leverages Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs to better equip the audience to build an environment for everyone to be their full and authentic selves.
