

A Seat at the Table

How Nurse Leadership Shapes Healthcare Governance

Tuesday, September 22

📅 12 p.m. – 1 p.m. PDT

📍 Live Virtual Event

Nurses influence care every day through their decisions, advocacy, and leadership. Serving on the board of a nonprofit, community-based organization, health system, or other governing body is another way nurses can make an impact.

Join Dr. Cole Edmonson as he discusses why nurses belong in governance roles, how board service supports communities and organizations, and what steps nurses can take to prepare for service.

Topics include:

1. Why nurse voices matter in governance
2. Resources available to prepare for board service
3. Pathways to obtaining a board position

Whether you have considered board service before or are learning about it for the first time, this session offers a practical introduction

Click here or scan the QR code to register.

Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Patient Care Services, is an approved provider by the California Board of Registered Nursing. Provider # CEP 2365.

This Illumination Series Presentation is approved for 1.0 Contact Hours. Continuing education collected through HealthStream. Must attend the live presentation.

Cole Edmonson, DNP, RN, NEA-BC, FNAP, FAONL, FAAN, is a nationally recognized nursing executive with more than three decades of experience in clinical care, leadership, governance, and healthcare innovation. He currently serves as Chief Executive Officer of the Nurses on Boards Coalition and is a Fellow of the American Academy of Nursing, National Academy of Practice, and American Organization for Nursing Leadership. A Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Executive Nurse Fellow alum, he is known for his work in nursing leadership, workforce development, academic-practice partnerships, technology, culture building, and nursing excellence.